Katowice Airport

Katowice Airport also known as Katowice – "Pyrzowice Airport" is located ca. 50 km south of Częstochowa, along the international A1 highway, near the village of Pyrzowice; hence, in rail and bus connections, it is often designated as "Pyrzowice-Airport" or .

Airport website: https://www.katowice-airport.com/pl

Flight connections to Katowice Airport
Katowice Airport serves connections to the following cities (as of October 9, 2026):

Albania – Tirana
Belgium – Brussels
Bulgaria – Varna, Burgas
Croatia – Rijeka, Pula, Zadar
Denmark – Aarhus
Georgia – Kutaisi

Germany – Dortmund
Greece – Athens
Hungary – Budapest
Ireland – Dublin
Italy – Turin, Milan, Rimini, Venice, Rome, Naples
Norway – Oslo
Portugal – Porto, Faro
Romania – Brașov
Spain – Madrid, Málaga, Alicante
UK – Manchester, London (Luton, Stansted)

Due to changes in flights and flight schedules, we recommend checking flight connections for the World Championship period before booking tickets.

Train connections to Częstochowa
The "Pyrzowice Lotnisko" railway station is located approximately 500 meters from the passenger terminals.
There is a convenient direct rail connection from the station Pyrzowice Lotnisko to Częstochowa via the Silesian Railways (Koleje Śląskie) regional line.
The cost of a train ticket is approx. 23 PLN / approx. 5.50 EUR), and the travel time is around 50 minutes.

Bus connections to Częstochowa
You can use several online search engines, as shown below; however, the final price depends on the number of travelers as well as the day and time:
https://www.flixbus.com/ – FlixBus network connections https://www.e-podroznik.pl – connection finder
https://ziplo.pl/czym-jest.ziplo/ – website for booking airport transfers